Time To Pay Your RCNA Dues!!

Last year, 2004, ONLY 468 out of 2800 households sent in their $20 annual dues. We are lucky to live in a neighborhood where the dues are voluntary. Many neighborhoods and especially the new ones, the dues are mandatory. Most neighborhoods pay over $10 each month, and our dues are only $20 a year. Most folks in other neighborhoods cannot believe that we are only a voluntary organization and yet are able to produce the type of activities and newsletter that we have.

Rattan Creek Newsletter

The newsletter that most folks take for granted in this neighborhood, is funded in part by the dues that you pay. Most of the funds to pay for the newsletter has come from our advertisers. We would like to thank the advertisers for their support and ask that you use their businesses.

What activities you ask?

For instance, the Annual Easter Egg Hunt. Scheduled for March 26th this year! Every year we have more children, and less funds to work with. Many folks have voiced that we should have more eggs for the children. Well, that takes money and volunteers. With the dwindling participation in the neighborhood association (both monetary and volunteers), events such as this will inevitably suffer. Yes, we do get donations of candy and eggs, and we thank those who do donate or volunteer their time every year, but we always need more help.

Other events include the “Members Only Pool Party”- the Pool Party is a catered event for those that did pay their dues - sort of a reward, “Rattan Fest”- is a fun event but takes a lot of prep work. “Caroling in the Park”-still costs us; the song books, which do not usually get returned, costs us to print each year.

The “Neighborhood Wide Garage Sale”- that is held twice a year, the RCNA pays for ads in the local paper and provides signs to bring folks into our neighborhood.

Scholarship Fund

The RCNA scholarship program, gives 3 deserving seniors a $500 scholarship; one of the criteria is that their family must be an current RCNA member .

*Please send in your $20 for the year.
Thank you for your support, we depend on you!!*

Please do your dog and yourself a favor, make sure your dog has a collar on with a tag that has it's name and your phone number on it.

Also, it won't hurt to write the dog's name inside the collar and your phone number, in case the tag falls off.

Vets offices are closed on the weekends and makes it hard for a neighbor to contact you should your dog accidentally get out.
